Morrison receives National Speakers Association Award

Jim Morrison, Green Bay Professional Speaker and Trainer was awarded the National Speakers Association of Wisconsin (NSA-W) Chapter Member of the Year Award at the organization's recent meeting in Milwaukee.

In presenting the award, Past Chapter and NSA National President Chris Clark Epstein thanked Jim for his tenure as Chapter President and for the numerous things he had accomplished including:

- Furthering relationships with partner organizations Meeting Planners International (MPI) and Wisconsin Society of Association Executives (WSAE)
- Recruiting a strong volunteer board with a mix of experienced and newer members and creating a leadership setting up a succession plan for the chapter
- Working with the National organization on a number of proposed changes enhancing relationship with chapters

Morrison said in accepting the recognition, "receiving an award from your peers is something that has a great deal of meaning to me and I truly appreciate the honor." He also thanked the board members and executive director Terry Estness for the over and above efforts in programming and financial management and member relations for the organization.

NSA-W is the first chartered chapter of the National Speakers Association (NSA) and meets 6 times a year in the Milwaukee area. Go to www.wisconsin-speakers.com for more information
